

FACETIOUS

A big acquaintance—A big sister—Told me a story.

The man at the bank had a tip-top berth—N. F. News.

What's the difference between a bride and a sister? Just a bit of difference—Columbus Sunday Journal.

"Sister" shouted a hardware clerk as he sold another planting implement—Columbus Sunday Journal.

When we asked our girl to marry us she said she didn't mind—and we have since found out that she didn't—Told me a story.

Why does the Niagara tumble so in its bed?—Arden as Traveler. Because it has a considerable drink in its head. Next—Wednesday Sunday Journal.

A recent medicine firm have christened their latest compound, "Rach," and are now treating the fall victims of the standard quackery. "Rach, my life!"—Told me a story.

"These," triumphantly exclaimed a Dead-wood editor, as a bullet came through the window and shattered the inkstand, "I knew that saw 'Personal' column would be a success."

"Your arguments are sound, my son, and delivered with force," said the clergyman to his boy, who had been lingering away at his desk for an hour or more, "but we have heard quite enough on that head." The boy stopped at once, with the air of his mother and the hired girl.

Three St. Louis tele of a card playing clergyman, who, on a recent Sunday, just before divine services began, was approached by the organist, who asked, referring to the opening hymn: "What shall I play?" "What kind of a hand have you got?" was the blunt and simple response.

Wrote to a friend, "I have seen the two-headed baby." It can cry with each mouth. "Bill—Have you heard the one-headed variety that's enough for me?"—Philadelphia Item. How could a fellow hold a lamp and at the same time feed it crackers and milk with two spoons?—Told me a story.

When we look back over the early years of our life, we recall how kind and thoughtful our dear mother was. She always brought a fine tooth comb and made us a new pair of pants every time we ran away from home, knowing well that we would need them both when we returned, after a week's month's starving and roughing it, and went around in the alley behind the house and sent our little sister in to tell her we had come back. Such is a mother's love—Told me a story.

Schickerson came into the house last evening with three inches and a half smile playing upon his countenance. "Hullo," said he, "when was the highest? When the town jumped over the moon. He had a ha ha." "There, there," said his wife, "hold that expression a minute. It reminds me of your great grandfather's looks when he half to laugh, at the self-same joke." Schickerson simply retorted by referring to his wife's "good memory for one who likes to be thought young," and dropped the laugh.

Well, indeed by our own citizens. No matter how useful anything may be in itself, good indorsements seem to increase its usefulness greatly by insuring a wider field for the display of its special merits. We were thus impressed in view of the following statements received by one of our representatives from leading individuals connected with some of the largest enterprises in our midst. Among others whose testimony was freely given was W. H. Stearns, Esq., Master Mechanic of the Conn. River Railroad, residing at No. 28 Boylston Street, who observed:—

"St. Jacobs Oil has had remarkable effect among the men employed here. One of them, James H. Smith, a very bad, and by the use of St. Jacobs Oil was greatly benefited and the arm was healed. Another used it for severe rheumatic pains in the knee, and pronounced the Oil a complete success as he was cured by its use. Mr. A. B. Taylor, of the 'Ray & Taylor Manufacturing Co.' was pleased to say: 'My aunt, Mrs. Pillsbury, of Mount Clair, N. J., while visiting at our home, tried St. Jacobs Oil for rheumatism and neuralgia, and found immediate relief every time. She pronounced it the best thing she had ever tried for the trouble. Mr. J. B. Weston, 45 Greenwood Street, Supt. Car Works, Boston & Albany Railroad, thus addressed our reporter: 'I am one more of the fortunate who have had the good luck to hear of this wonderful remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. I had rheumatism in the shoulder severely and could find no relief until I used the Oil. I applied it and must confess I was surprised at the results. I am almost well and expect to be entirely so in a few days.'—Springfield (Mass.) Union.

London Punch:—"Pat, Jr. (in answer to inquiry by Saxon): 'There's foive of us, yer Honor, an' the baby.' Saxon: 'And are you the eldest?' Pat, Jr.: 'I am, yer Honor, at present.'"

The St. Louis (Mo.) Post-Dispatch at the close of a long article says: In fact St. Jacobs Oil is pushing all other remedies out of the field, and, excellent though some of the liniments, formerly offered are, the efficacy of St. Jacobs Oil is manifest in cases of sciatica, rheumatism, pleurisy, neuralgia, nervous headache, lumbago and scores of other disorders; while in the case of sprains, burns or injuries it is an absolute panacea, and for general use is better than the advice of many physicians. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

A man with a small salary and a large family says if pride goes before a fall, he would like to see Pride start out a little ahead of the price of coal and provisions.—Boston Commercial Advertiser.

RESCUED FROM DEATH. William G. Condit, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a swelling of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and sleep, and was reduced to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half-dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me that Dr. Wm. Hall's Balm for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all other Lung Affections, was the only thing that would save me. I bought a bottle, and to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to day I feel better than for three years past.

I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balm, and be convinced that Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all other Lung Affections, can be cured. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicine I have taken since my sickness.

There is a dwarf in Manitoba who hires himself out to look at the thermometer when it gets very low.

In the view of the Lowell Citizen, the honeymoon ends when the last quarter is reached.

"First a cough, carried me off, And then a coffin they carried me off in!" This will not be your epitaph if you take your cough and Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" in time. It is specific for weak lungs, spitting of blood, night sweats, and the early stages of consumption. By all druggists.

He that collects his thoughts is compelled to dan his brain.—N. F. News.

Lord Byron, in reference to a beautiful lady, wrote to a friend:—"Lady—has been dangerously ill, but now she is dangerously well again?" American ladies, when attacked by any of the ills that flesh is heir to, may be kept killing, and avoid being killed by taking Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," which banishes feminine weakness, and restores the bloom of health. By all druggists.

A dangerous man—one who takes life cheerfully.

One voice all over the land goes up from mothers, that says, "My daughters are so feeble and sad, with no strength, all out of breath and life at the least exertion. What can we do for them?" The answer is simple and full of hope. One to four weeks use of Bitter Bitters will make them healthy, rosy, sprightly and cheerful.

Backache is almost immediately relieved by wearing one of Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache Plasters. Try one and be free from pain. Price 25 cents.
